John Kupice, CEO and director, commented “Q1 Revenue came in above our internal plan with our transaction pipeline growing for positive performance in 2018. We anticipate material revenue growth into Q2 as we are currently experiencing both increased transactions and active hospitals growth. We continue to engage in discussions with new healthcare facilities and expect continued adoption across the U.S. As more facilities continue to experience the cost savings of the platform, it results in increased transactions. 2018 is the year that we build meaningful revenue growing each quarter.”
